

100 Black Men of Louisville
14th Annual Derby Gala
Clarion Hotel, 9700 Bluegrass Parkway
May 5, 2005
8:00 p.m. - 2:00 a.m.

DJ STEVE 'SILK' HURLEY

FIVE MEN ON A STOOL

Five Men On A Stool is a contemporary R&B/Jazz ensemble accompanied by a touch of the spoken word. The group consists of four tremendously talented individuals with an All-Star rhythm section representing the "fifth" man. Their combination results in an unforgettably unique blend of music and poetry unrivaled in today's music scene. Their performances serve not only as entertainment, they also leave the audience inspired and enlightened about the community and the world. Their loyal following grows larger with each performance and they continue to leave an indelible mark on each person that experiences the wonder of Five Men On a Stool. This Atlanta based phenomenon is sweeping the southeast with its captivating yet indescribable performance.

www.fivemenonastool.com

Steve "Silk" Hurley was one of the early pioneers in the Chicago House sound. Hurley started as JM Silk in the early 80's at a club called the Candy Store and DJed on Chicago Radio Station WBMX-FM while he was friends and roommates with FARLEY "JACKMASTER" FUNK. His first song "Music is the Key" made the Top Ten in the charts and In 1987 he produced the famous House song called "Jack Your Body" which was a Number One hit in the UK. In 1998, he also got nominated for the Grammy remixer of the year. Hurley has also done remixes for Pop artists like Prince, Janet Jackson, and Madonna, and others. He also formed his label Silk Entertainment in 1997.

www.silkmix.com