

Clint Walker

Mr. Walker is the Chairman and CEO of Vikan Lab Corporation a Georgia Holding Company. He has of 20 years of business experience in “C” Level consulting, financial management, negotiations and software solutions delivery. Mr. Walker is extremely proficient in Performance Management, Asset Management, and Enterprise Software Life Cycle Management. He also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Team 7 Consulting, LLC, a software company he founded 17 years ago. Mr. Walker has a passion for working with local communities to ensure minority you are not overlooked in the still growing digital divide. He has donated resources, time and given countless speeches throughout the US. He is a Member of 100 Black Men of Atlanta where he has served as Historian, Audit Chair, HR Committee Chair and a Board Member at Large. Mr. Walker also serves as the current Chairman of Technology Committee for 100 Black Men of America and International, Inc. He has served two terms in the role and dedicated that time to stabilizes and renewing the technology used for National and Global communications along with core components for chapter relationship management (CRM).

He is a native of Dallas, Texas and resident of Atlanta, GA for the last 21 years. Mr. Walker is a member of Salem Bible Church and works with church officials on programs to better develop the community and youth. He currently resides in Johns Creek, GA, a suburb of Atlanta with his family.

Mr. Walker has serves on local and National Boards/Committees of:

- 100 Black Men of America (Chairman, Technology Committee)
- 100 Black Men of Atlanta (Historian, Current Committees: Finance, Fund Development, HR, Technology, AFC, BEST Academy Teen Court; Past Committee: Executive)
- Black College Alumni Hall of Fame
- Atlanta Business League (Past Director)
- Clinton Global Initiative (Technology and Global Learning Initiatives)
- Bartron Imaging, Inc.
- Madison Avenue Media Group
- Team 7 Consulting, LLC